November 2018

President's Message

The Power of THREES!

So, I handed this list out at our October meeting, I sent it out to all of you in a group email, and now you get to see it for the THIRD time. Third times a charm, right? By the time you get this version in your newsletter, though, the first two things on the list will probably already have occurred and I hope many of you were there to enjoy them. Please put the rest of them on all your calendars so that you can reap the benefits of everything that TRAG has to offer you!

Save these dates to enjoy more art in the Ozarks with your TRAG friends!

- On Saturday, October 27, follow the Stone County Art Studio Tour and visit Karen Deeds in Reeds Spring and wind up at the Table Rock Art Guild Gallery in Kimberling City. (Actually, you could stop by there first and bring some cookies to serve!)
- On Tuesday, October 30, join Sandy Fearn for Oragami Fun – a mini-workshop in the Community Area at the Kimberling Area Library from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This will be our last “Last Tuesday” event for the year.
- On Monday, November 5, come to the Elks Lodge for a delicious chicken dinner for only $10 (proceeds will help defray the cost of the Student Art Show) – Buy your ticket today at the Gallery!
- On Monday, November 19th, come to the TRAG meeting and enjoy visiting with friends and hearing/seeing what the TRAG Shooters have been up to over the year!
- On Sunday, December 2, bring snacks to the Gallery for the Open House (and be sure you have brought a piece of your artwork up, earlier in the week, to display in our “all members” exhibit!)
- On Monday, December 17, bring your pot luck dish AND your handmade Christmas ornament for our annual party and ornament exchange.
- On Monday, January 21, plan to bring a sample of what you are currently working on (art-wise) for the Artist of the Month competition and wish your TRAG friends a Happy New Year. (Cross your fingers we won't get snowed/iced out this year!)
- In late March, check the date planned to help mat all of the amazing art the children have contributed to our annual student art show (that will be on March 29, 30, and 31).
- Volunteer:
 - To be at the Gallery sometime during the Student's show to greet their family and friends.
 - To serve on one of the Fall Show committees
 - To conduct a mini-workshop
 - To present a program (or suggest a program you would enjoy)
 - ??? the list of opportunities for you to participate is endless!!!

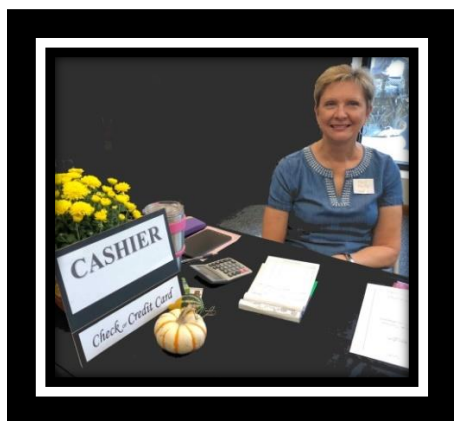

Remember – The Table Rock Art Guild is YOUR organization, and you will only get out of it what YOU put into it!

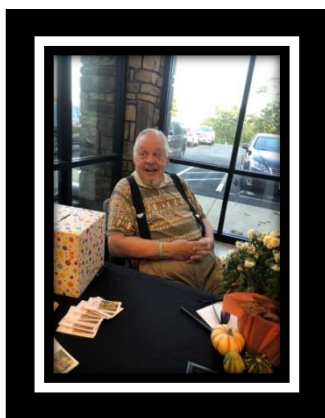

Artfully yours,
Pat Hovis-French

Hues of the Ozarks

Top 10 in sales were Val Medley, Jan Rosenberg, Helen Long, Paula Buzenius, Kate Rickard, Karen Deeds, Gail Attanasio, Don Haberman, David Carver and Linda Edge-Dunlap.

GALLERY OPEN HOUSE

Sunday, Dec 2, 1:00-4:00

Everyone that is not showing in the gallery should bring a couple of pieces of art to display for the month of December. Also, please bring some finger food.

Minutes / Table Rock Art Guild Meeting / October 15, 2018

Pat Hovis-French, President, opened the meeting at 12:17 p.m. with three inspirational quotes and an invocation.

The minutes of the September meeting which were printed in the newsletter were duly approved by hand vote, on motion by Val Medley, seconded by Karen Deeds.

Announcements: Pat Hovis-French

- Table Rock Art Guild Gallery and Karen Deeds Studio are both featured on the annual Stone County Art Studio Tour on October 27.
- Thanked Jan and her hard-working crew who put in the hours, sweat, and tears to make the Fall Festival a success.

Reports:

Treasurer Report – Posted in office of Gallery (sales for September were $888)

1st VP – Jack O’Keefe:

- Jack reminded members that the easels used to display Guild art in the banks need to be the ones provided by the Guild, not privately-owned ones.
- Ginny Campbell discussed the upcoming field trips to Dogwood Canyon on October 20 and to Donnegan Gallery in Bolivar on November 30.
- The final mini-workshop/tutorial will be on October 30 – Oragami Fun led by Sandy Fearn. Let Sandy know if you plan to come.

2nd VP – Jan Rosenburg gave a summary of the Fall Festival and thanked everyone that helped.

Membership – Sandy Fearn introduced Ann Collins, a new member and welcomed her to the Guild.

Artist of the Month – Helen Long: The theme was “Pick a Color”: First place tie went to Judy Bell and Paula Buzenius; second place to Ginny Campbell, and third place to Gail Attanasio.

Split the Pot - $5 to Judy Bell

Old Business: Remember the fund raiser to offset costs of the Student Art Show in the spring. Tickets for $10 are available at the registration table today, will be at the Gallery, or may be purchased at the door. Donations of desserts would be appreciated and volunteers are needed to help serve on November 5.

On motion (Jan O’Neill and Kate Rickard) the meeting was adjourned at 12:49 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Jack O’Keefe, Secretary pro tem

Following the meeting Pat Hovis-French presented the program, “What TRAG can do for you AND what YOU can do for TRAG!”, based on a powerpoint used for a Learning on Wednesday presentation given at the Kimberling Area Library in August. Slides with photos from the Fall Festival had been added and members received handouts highlighting the dates of upcoming TRAG-related opportunities.

Field Trip Update

I hope everyone enjoyed the Dogwood Canyon trip.

Our last field trip of this season is scheduled for Friday Nov 30 to the Dunnegan Museum in Bolivar, MO. Some of you may know that our own Jon Thompson has a piece in this museum - you'll be impressed. The gallery has been undergoing some alterations in their facility - replacing the HVAC system and therefore aren't currently hosting any travelling shows. However, they will have both galleries hung with pieces from their permanent collection. I have seen several of these (some from past Watercolor USA shows) and I think they have an impressive collection and think you'll find this little museum enjoyable. Admission is free.

Since the hours are limited to M-W-F, 1-4, we will be going to lunch first, then on to the gallery.

At present I'm contemplating two restaurants (both recommended by locals). One is an authentic Mediterranean venue, and prices range from $10 and up (there are some gluten free choices). The owner learned her trade from Turkey and other Middle Eastern countries.

The other has more conventional American cuisine and the prices are a bit lower.

I'd like to hear from you (if you're planning on going) as to your restaurant choices. Let me know at the Nov. meeting. When I hear your preferences I'll make reservations.

Holiday time is always busy but if you can make this trip it should be fun.

Ginny Campbell, Field Trip Coordinator

A special thanks to Nancy Williams for her help in putting this together! She really made it all so easy.

Sunshine List

Gail Davis is still undergoing laser treatments 3 times a week for skin cancer.

David Carver is in the midst of his chemo treatments.

Veronica and Bonnie have both sent messages that they are doing well settling in in Florida.

LaVerne's husband is healing from having 10 teeth extracted the day of our last meeting.

Hugs to all,
Barb
